If you like to look better with class and composure, men's cufflinks are generally accepted and used by many people. Yes, they're phenomenal because they hold the fabric of your clothes together in the absence of buttons. However, there are several more benefits to it than that. Men's cufflinks are best recognized for the outstanding way to position yourself apart.

A Letter from C.J. HASTINGS

CEO of C.J. Hastings Inc.

What started in 1885 as a small men's fashion shop in New York City, has grown to 6 stores in Paris, Munich and London. C.J. Hastings is the leading Men's Formal Wear and specialty store and authority for the savvy, fashion conscious customer. Hastings has stayed true to our high standards for fashion, value and great customer service. Our styles are inspired by the upscale, well to do rich guy with lots of money to spend on clothes. You want to look nice? Then spend the money and get right.

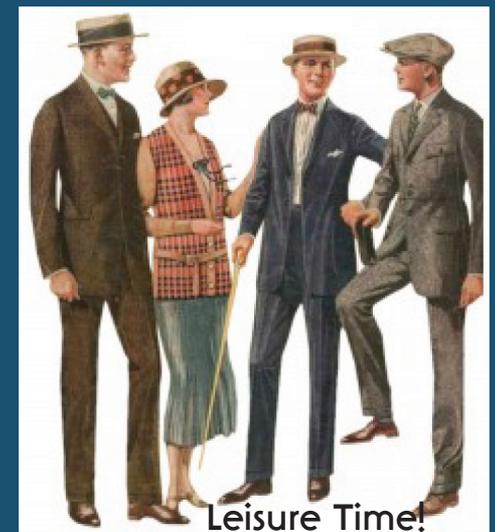

"Why are your prices so high?" or "Do I have to travel to New York to buy?" These are questions we get asked quite a lot, and it's very understandable, considering the selection of merchandise we carry and sell for only $30.00 or less. The merchandise we sell is high quality and 100% brand new. Our items have never been worn, and are not store returns or damages. We buy our merchandise directly from manufacturers all around the world but mostly from right here in New York City, where C.J. Hastings' headquarters is based.

We have a long history with a just a few of the manufacturers we work with therefore are able to purchase large quantities from them at lowest possible prices. Because we do have the huge expenses of a regular brick and mortar retail store we are not always able to pass on the savings to our customers.
